Camp Mission Statement:

Basketball is a sport that every child can have fun and excel in. For the younger kids this camp aims to find the joy in exploring the sport and its many facets. All players will work cooperatively on a variety of fundamental skills and challenges related to the sport in a safe and well-supervised setting. Each camper will come away with new friends, new knowledge, and a new found sense of accomplishment and self-confidence. For the middle school camp, female players will undergo rigorous skills and drills sessions and work on many of the fundamentals that the high school team focuses on all season. Current high school players will mentor campers throughout. These camps all strive to send every member home with a sense of belonging to a program in town that is positive and productive.

Program Includes:

1. Individual and group instruction in the fundamentals aspects of the sport in the areas of offense, defense, and teamwork.
2. Mentoring by current high school players
3. A really cool camp tee-shirt.
4. Access to appropriate on campus facilities.
5. Lots of take-home prizes, drills, and memories.
6. Group oriented challenges and competitions.

What To Bring To Camp:

1. Comfortable basketball clothes appropriate for inside and outside wear
2. Water and a small snack
3. Basketball sneakers with a comfortable fit
