Carver grown

Carver crafted

Carver's Farmers Market has reopened Sunday, June 9th, 2013 for the 2013 summer season. We plan an active year with a number of produce vendors, crafters, and special attractions for children. Each Sunday through the end of October, Shurtleff Park in the center of Carver will have booths set up, with the Market opening at 12 Noon. We plan to have music each weekend.
