

PRESS RELEASE: JUNE 22, 2022

The Town of Carver is pleased to announce the appointment of Robert H. Fennessy, Jr. as its next Town Administrator. Mr. Fennessy has previously served as Town Administrator in Kingston and Boylston, and was a former six-term selectman in his home town of Plainville, MA. Mr. Fennessy has served as Carver's Interim Town Administrator since January 1, 2022.

Most recently, Mr. Fennessy has been employed as an attorney in his firm in Mansfield, MA, focusing much of his practice in municipal law, employment law, family law, and animal law matters. Prior, he was the Deputy Director of the Mass. Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Law Enforcement Division in Boston with the rank of Captain.

A graduate of Northeastern University, Boston University, and UMass Law School, where he is also an adjunct professor of law, Mr. Fennessy brings a well-balanced background to the position of Carver Town Administrator.

"We are all excited to have Mr. Fennessy on board as our new Town Administrator, and look forward to working with him in his leadership role for the next four years," said Mark Townsend, Chair of the Carver Select Board.
